GERMAN ATTACK ON ANTWERP IS HALF HEARTED

Its Object to Keep Belgians From Tampering With German Communications

Significant Article By German Military Writer

By Bulletin Leased Wire AMSTERBAM, via London, Oct. 2—A despatch from the German capital says, that the Berliner Tageblatt prints a significant criticles by its military correspondent, Major Morapt, who, while asserting confidence that there will be a fresh German advance on Paris, is careful to add:

But there is another possibility which must command the conBut there is another possibility which must command the conbuilt and the same of the award or the beginning of the end of the Franco-British presumption of victory."

Major Morapt then explains that the further the allies move from Verdun and Toul, which he says form their last great strong-told, the longer is the distance they must travel back when the tream of German armies, broad and unhindered, flows westward rom Loranie.
